

God Turns our Trouble into Good

Sometimes bad things happen, and it is easy to think that God is not there. But The Bible tells us that God is working all things together for good.

Joseph was sold into slavery by his brothers. He was shipped off to Egypt. He worked hard and made friends, but a lie got him put into prison. Sitting in prison, far away from home, Joseph could have gotten mad. But he trusted God.

Soon he got out of jail. He was put in a very high position. He helped Egypt to become a great nation. Joseph's brother had no food, so they had to come to Egypt to find some. They found themselves at the feet of a great ruler. The great ruler was Joseph.

All of Joseph's troubles turned out for his good. We must believe that all our troubles are for our good, because God loves us.

Discussion Questions

1. Can you tell more of the story of Joseph?
2. Should we complain when we are sick or sad?
3. What should we remember?

Memory Verse

And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. | Romans 8:28