

Jesus was a Teacher

Jesus didn't come to just be our savior, He came to be a teacher too. Jesus would sit on a hillside and talk for hours. He would teach them everything they needed to know. But Jesus didn't teach out of a book like they do at school. He didn't teach the people reading, writing, and arithmetic. Jesus taught the people about who God is.

When Jesus spoke people came from all over to hear Him. They wanted to know about God. The people who thought they knew everything didn't want to listen, but those who knew that they needed God stayed for days. Sometimes He even sat and taught the kids. Everyone else thought that what He was talking about was too difficult for them to understand, but Jesus said, 'let the little children come to me.'

Do you want to learn from Jesus? Do you want Him to teach you? You can't go see Him on the hillside, because He went up to heaven. The way that Jesus teaches us now is through the Bible. The Bible tells us about who God is, what He has done, and what He calls us to do as His people. The teachings of Jesus have been written down so that we can continue to learn from Him!
