My servant David shall be king over them, and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall walk in my rules and be careful to obey my statutes. They shall dwell in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children's children shall dwell there forever, and David my servant shall be their prince forever. I Ezekiel 37:24–25

For we do not sever the man from the Godhead, but we lay down as a dogma the unity and identity of person, who of old was not man but God, and the only Son before all ages, unmingled with body or anything corporeal; but who in these last days has assumed manhood also for our salvation; passible in His flesh, impassible in His Godhead; circumscript in the body, uncircumscript in the Spirit; at once earthly and heavenly, tangible and intangible, comprehensible and incomprehensible; that by one and the same person, who was perfect man and also God, the entire humanity fallen through sin might be created anew. I Gregory of Nazianzus

- reflection

Take a moment to reflect on these words of our Lord.

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him." Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? | John 14.6-9

- hymn of praise | phos hilaron

O radiant light, O sun divine Of God the Father's deathless face,

O image of the light sublime That fills the heav'nly dwelling place.

O Son of God, the source of life, Praise is your due by night and day;

Our happy lips must raise the strain Of your esteemed and splendid name.

Lord Jesus Christ, as daylight fades, As shine the lights of eventide,

We praise the Father with the Son, The Spirit blest, and with them one.
